

Course Selection

When choosing the courses to register for, the process can be completed two different ways. To select the courses yourself, you can utilize your DegreeWorks to see which courses are left in your program of study. If you are unsure or would like help in selecting courses, you can schedule an appointment with your academic advisor, who will help you select the best courses to register for.

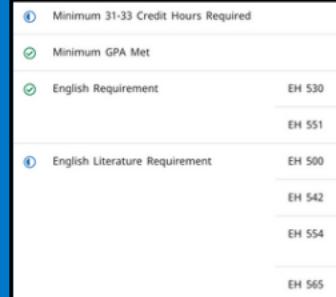

To Use DegreeWorks:

This screenshot shows the MyUAH dashboard. At the top, there are two informational banners: one about banner maintenance and another about Google Workplace changes. Below the banners is the main dashboard area with tabs for Home, Academics, Community, My Account, and Work. The 'Academics' tab is selected. Under 'Academics', there is a card for 'DegreeWorks' which shows '0.00' for Parental Leave. Other cards include 'Financial Aid Staff', 'Parent Scholarship Request Form', and 'Course Program of Study'.

This screenshot shows the 'Student Services' card on the dashboard. The 'Student Records' dropdown menu is open, displaying a list of options: Student Profile, Personal Information, Request Academic Transcript, View Academic Transcript, DegreeWorks, Degree Evaluation Undergraduate (CAPP), Request Enrollment Verification, Apply to Graduate, and Create Proxy Access.

This screenshot shows the 'DegreeWorks' legend table. It lists requirements with their corresponding symbols and hours: Minimum 31-33 Credit Hours Required (info icon), Minimum GPA Met (checkmark icon), English Requirement (checkmark icon) with EH 530, EH 551, EH 500, EH 542, EH 554, and EH 565 listed; English Literature Requirement (info icon) with EH 500, EH 542, EH 554, and EH 565 listed.

1) Login to your MyUAH account and open the dashboard.

2) Find the Student Services card. Click on the Student Records dropdown menu. Click on DegreeWorks from the menu.

3) The legend explaining the meaning of each symbol is located at the bottom of the page. Use this legend to find which areas of your program of study are incomplete. Within these areas, the specific courses or number of hours needed will be listed.

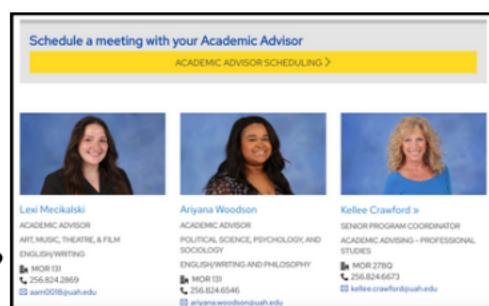

To Schedule an Advising Appointment:

1) Each college has their own Academic Advising office. Find the Academic Advising page for your college.

This screenshot shows the 'Academic Advising' page for the College of Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences. It features a banner with three graduates in caps and gowns, and links for Undergraduate Programs, Graduate Programs, Walk, New CARS Students, Academic Advising, and Student Resources.

2) You can find the advisor assigned to your major, contact information for your advisor, and a link to schedule an appointment. Email your advisor or meet with them in person for assistance with course selection.

This screenshot shows the 'Schedule a meeting with your Academic Advisor' page. It lists three advisors with their names, titles, and contact information: Lexi Mekalnski (Academic Advisor for Art, Music, Theatre, & Film, English/Writing), Arlyana Woodson (Academic Advisor for Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology, English/Writing and Philosophy), and Kellee Crawford (Senior Program Coordinator for Academic Advising - Professional Studies).
